

HISTORY

Associate of Arts

The Associate of Arts degree with a field of study in History is designated for students planning to transfer to a baccalaureate degree in History or Liberal Arts at four-year institutions.

The curriculum includes general academic courses and electives that enable students who intend to major in History to transfer to four-year institutions.

Completing a History program can expand opportunities in teaching, museums, archives, government, law school, journalism and other related areas.

Instruction in History promotes reading, writing, and critical thinking, as well as development of awareness of how the past has shaped the present.

Program Learning Outcomes

1. Graduates will demonstrate an ability to contrast cultural influences in society.
2. Graduates will demonstrate an ability to explain significant social movements and their impact on history.
3. Graduates will demonstrate an ability to define and distinguish important political forces in history.
4. Graduates will demonstrate an ability to analyze historiography.
5. Graduates will demonstrate an ability to analyze primary and secondary sources.
