

SPANISH CONCENTRATION

Associate of Arts

The Language and Cultural Studies Field of Study is designed to provide students the opportunity to develop and enhance their practical communication skills and cross-cultural understanding that will provide them the foundational coursework required for careers in languages and cultural studies.

Furthermore, the field of study will focus on integrating language, culture and literature to help students gain an international perspective for living and working in today's global society.

Students declaring a field of study in Languages and Cultural Studies may choose courses in one or both of the following concentrations: Spanish and American Sign Language.

Program Learning Outcomes

1. The graduate will apply the appropriate uses of accents and grammatical structures in the Spanish language in written form.
2. The graduate will demonstrate effective Oral communication skills in Spanish by presenting and discussing information, concepts, and ideas.
3. The graduate will be able to describe three characteristics of Spanish and Latin American cultures such as traditions, language, food and religion.
4. The graduate will be able to describe interrelationships between art and culture.
5. The graduate will be able to produce Spanish written texts analyzing cultural topics, including literature.
